We are one of the youngest universities in Germany and think in terms of unlimited possibilities instead of possible limitations. Located in the heart of the Ruhr Metropolis, our 11 faculties develop ideas with a future. We are strong on research and teaching, we embrace diversity, promote academic potential and we engage in genuine educational equality

The Faculty of Business Administration and Economics at the University of Duisburg-Essen invites applications for the position of a full professor (f/m/d) in

"Macroeconomics"

(Salary Class W 3 LBesO W)

The position has a core role in research and teaching in the Institute of Business and Economics.

We therefore look for an outstanding academic with experience with research, teaching and externally funded projects in the area of macroeconomics. The successful candidate has an excellent track record of publications in leading international journals, international experience as well as experience with the acquisition and management of projects using competitive third-party funding, preferably through the DFG or comparable international funding agencies.

The faculty offers a strong and competitive research environment. The faculty cooperates with the RWI – Leibniz Institute for Economic Research in Essen as well as, via the University Alliance Ruhr, with the neighboring universities in Bochum and Dortmund. Further opportunity for cooperation partners is located within the faculty, e.g., in the research institute "House of Energy Markets and Finance", as well as within the University of Duisburg-Essen, one of the largest German universities.

The successful candidate is expected to offer courses in theoretical and empirical macroeconomics in the faculty's BSc and MSc programs in economics, in neighboring disciplines and in the study programs for teacher training. Participation in the Ruhr Graduate School in Economics, the joint PhD program of the University Alliance Ruhr, is expected. The willingness to offer courses in German as well as in English is required. Candidates without sufficient language proficiency in German are expected to attain the level of oral and written proficiency required to offer courses in German within three years.

The University of Duisburg-Essen places great emphasis on excellence in teaching. Candidates must present their teaching concepts, showing their relevance to the research profile of the University of Duisburg-Essen.

The hiring requirements comply with § 36 of the Higher Education Act of North Rhine-Westphalia (HG)

The University of Duisburg-Essen promotes the diversity of its members (https://www.uni-due.de/diversity). It strives to increase the percentage of women in its academic staff and therefore emphatically invites qualified women to apply. In the case of equal qualifications, female candidates will be considered with preference (Equal Opportunities Act). As per § 2 Sect. 3 SGB IX, applications by candidates with a disability or equivalent status are especially welcome.

Applications with the usual documents (CV, list of publications, documentation of academic and professional development, copies of relevant documents and certificates, an exposé of the applicant's research profile with reference to its relevance for the University of Duisburg-Essen, a list of successful external grant applications, a list of courses taught and a teaching philosophy, an enumeration of experience in academic self-administration) should be sent by 27-12-2020 at the latest to the Dean of the Faculty of Business Administration and Economics:
