

The Department of Educational Sciences and Psychology at TU Dortmund University offers the following position (starting at the earliest opportunity):

Professorship (W3) in Empirical Educational Research in Primary and Secondary Education

Our profile

TU Dortmund University comprising 17 departments in the natural and engineering sciences as well as the humanities and social sciences is a dynamic university with a strong profile in research, teaching, promotion of young scientists and transfer.

Profile of the professorship

The Center for Research on Education and School Development (IFS) is a leading institute in the field of school and education research. The professorship should have its own focus in the field of Empirical Educational Research in Primary and Secondary Education. Therefore, a research focus in an area of Empirical Educational Research in Primary and Secondary Education is expected as well as the willingness to participate in the further development of internal university, national and international cooperation, interdisciplinary collaboration and the continuous development of the IFS. You contribute appropriately in the teaching activities of the department.

Your qualifications

You have obtained a doctorate with above-average success and have acquired a post-doctoral lecture qualification (Habilitation) or an equivalent qualification. You have demonstrated your research excellence in the field of the professorship through outstanding, also international, research experience and continuous national and international publications in peer-reviewed journals. You have successfully obtained competitively awarded third-party funding or clearly indicate such potential through the acquisition of other third-party funds for research projects. You are proven in adequate, quantitative statistical methodology. Additionally, you have the potential for teaching excellence. Social and leadership skills and the willingness to participate in academic self-administration complete your profile. Moreover, the recruitment requirements of Sections 36 and 37 of the North Rhine-Westphalia Higher Education Act (Gesetz über die Hochschulen des Landes Nordrhein-Westfalen, HG) apply.

Attractive environment

We offer an excellent academic environment and attractive cooperation opportunities with renowned international, national, and regional partners. The metropolitan Ruhr Area with the University Alliance Ruhr (UA Ruhr) guarantees short distances to a diversity of partners from science and industry. With our Dual Career Service, we accompany your partner in the professional orientation in the region if desired. We will be happy to provide information about housing and living in Dortmund and help you find childcare options. If you are coming to us from abroad, our Welcome Service will support you upon your arrival in Germany.

Diversity welcome

A central goal of TU Dortmund University is to promote diversity and equal opportunities. We strive to significantly increase the percentage of women in research and teaching and therefore welcome applications from female academics. We give preference to severely disabled applicants if their qualifications meet the requirements. We support the compatibility of family and career and promote gender equality in academia and research. We welcome applications from individuals of any gender.

Your application

If you are interested in the position, please send your application via e-mail by 22.03.2023 to: sabine.hornberg@tu-dortmund.de

Details on the application process and the preparation of application documents can be found here:

berufung.tu-dortmund.de/en/application

Questions will be answered by the Dean of the Department of Educational Sciences and Psychology, University Professor Dr. Sabine Hornberg, Tel: +49 231 755 -2187 or sabine.hornberg@tu-dortmund.de

Further information about the Department of Educational Sciences and Psychology can be found at ep.tu-dortmund.de